INSTRUCTIONS

1. Leaving a 1/4" space around the edge of the tree, paint the top of the tree with 3 coats of Grasshopper. This piece will not be dipped into clear glaze, so it's important to apply 3 generous coats of paint.
 2. Leaving a 1/4" space around the edge of the star, paint the top of the star with 3 coats of Sunny Side Up.
 3. Use a fan brush to paint 3 generous coats of Red Hot to the inside of the mug.
 4. Apply 3 generous coats of Mississippi Mud to the edge of the star and the tree using a liner brush.
 5. Paint 3 generous coats of Red Hot to the handle.
 6. Dip the handle of a brush into the paint to make the dots on the tree. We used Red Hot, Orange Juice, Sunny Side Up, Caribbean Surf, and Perfectly Purple.
 7. When the mug is dry, apply 2 coats of Speckta-Clear Peppermint to the remaining unpainted parts of the mug (the outside and the bottom).
-  This piece will not be dipped in a clear glaze after using the Speckta-Clear Peppermint. Make sure that all of the pottery is covered when completing each step.

TIPS

- If you do not have the Speckta-Clear Peppermint, you can achieve the speckled look by flicking on red and green spots using a stiff brush or a toothbrush. The piece will need to be dipped into clear glaze if not using the Speckta-Clear
